Agenda –

- Introductions
- Issues

Minutes-

- Mrs Collins introduced the School Council. Stating that they usually meet once per half term but sometimes they meet more if there were issues to discuss.
- Mrs Collins asked if there were any issues around school. The children said that sometimes they feel that there is not enough toys out at playtime and they would like more toys.
- Mrs Collins asked if there is anything they would like to do to make school better. They went on a tour around the communal areas of school. The children said that they would like to have some seating in the teepee with fairy lights so they could read in there.
- One child said that he would like a roundabout in the middle of the playground. Mrs Collins explained that in the middle it wouldn't be good but we could look at getting something safer to use on the grass.
- The children said that they love planting and learning outside. Mrs Collins said that the ECO committee are going to be planting some trees soon so we can do more learning outside.

Any other business –
